Sheweth

That your petitioner is the son of the late Mr V. Rosaiah Pillai the late Head Draughtsman and "estimator" in the Chief Engineers office of the Mysore Govt and subsequently Curator in charge of the Bangalore Palace

That in 1894 your petitioner joined the School of Arts & Studied there for a period of one year during which period he acquired a fair knowledge of Painting Free hand drawing and was able enough to pass [illegible] Much to the required standard and satisfaction As his father was a Diplomaed and well known artist and Architect the petitioner had also the fortune of his tuition while young in drawing (Free hand drawing mechanical [illegible] & topographical drawing) Surveying Levelling and estimating once Coupled with the petitioners own natural taste for such arts helped him to improve himself to a very great extent in an incredibly short space of time Once when the Prince Raja Varma the renowned artist of Southern India had the chance of seeing his paintings and drawings he prophesied that one day or other the petitioner would turn out a fine artist and an architect if he is only put but in the way of being trained in any of the Schools in Southern India

That his Father's sudden death deprived him of opportunity to Continue his studies, and pursue Course as originally intended

That, after finishing the Course he will be of use use in the Archaeological researches, in any of the young ~~[illegible]~~ hand draughtsmen in any of the Government schools where free hand drawing is to be made ~~[illegible]~~ compulsory subjects the Science Branch of the Madras University

Under these circumstances, the petitioner most Respectfully prays that Your honor may be pl to accord sanction for a small monthly Sti of Rs 15/- at least whereunto to Continue his in the school for a period of 2 years more to g his Course, or to get him a footing in the Chief En office. Consideration of the long and faithf
